December 2019

Editor's Corner

It's that time of the year. Yup time for you to assess your cross country ski outfit. No you don't need to have the latest runway fashion but you should dress appropriately for the occasion. Torn and holey jeans exposing more than your cotton underwear, are not only unsightly, but dangerous. Next months guest speaker will explain how and why you need to dress for success in cross country skiing.

But this month's meeting LICCSC will have our first cross country ski swap. If you have any cross country skis, poles boots, waxes, tools, bags, gloves, clothing, bring them to the December meeting. There you will have the opportunity to swap, sell, or buy a different brand of skis, or a different style of skis, or replace a pair of poles, or boots, or you may need a bag, ski wax, ski glove, or any ski accessory. Looking forward to seeing everyone.

Ken

President's Message

It's already December – seems like time is flying by! The good news is that the northeast has been getting lots of snow early in the season and Nordic centers are reporting they are open! Places like Trapp Nordic Center in Stowe, VT, Mt. Van Hoevenberg Nordic Center in Lake Placid, NY, Craftsbury Outdoor Center, in northern VT, and the Jackson Nordic Center in Jackson, NH all report they are open for XC skiing with XC track set. The first photo is of XC trails at Jackson, NH and the second photo are trails at Craftsbury, VT.

I hope that you all consider coming on one or more of our great XC ski trips. They are all detailed on our website (LICCS.org) in the CALENDAR and can also be found in this newsletter. Worth special mention is our trip to Lake Placid – our ONLY bus trip - coming up January 17-20. It is very important to reserve your spot in this trip NOW! A block of rooms is being held by the hotel until December 14th. Unreserved rooms will be turned back to the hotel on Dec 14th. After December 14th, participation is by room availability only. This is a great trip for people new to XC skiing as well as experienced skiers and it is our ONLY bus trip. Come play in the snow with us!

At the December 12 meeting we are going to try something new this year – the 1st Annual XC ski Swap & Sale! We will have tables set up around the room where you can bring in XC ski items you would like to swap or sell – clothes, ski equipment, waxes, ski bags, etc.

- If you have any XC ski clothing, gear, old XC skis, poles, boots, bindings, ski bags, etc. that you are no longer using, bring them in to trade or sell at our December 12 meeting!
- Are you looking to pick up some inexpensive XC ski clothing or ski equipment? Then come to our Swap & Sale at our December 12 Meeting!

I plan to have some special food items to help celebrate the holidays. This should be a fun event that I hope to do on an annual basis. This is a “Member Only” event. Membership forms will be available at the meeting for any guests that would like to participate. All are welcome!

I would like to take this opportunity to wish everyone a Happy, Safe and Healthy Holiday season! Enjoy!

Kim Schultze

Message from the V.P. - Trip Coordinator

Cross Country Ski Trip Update

Hi fellow cross country skiers,

It is time to seriously start thinking about the ski season ahead. Time to take the skis up from the basement, down from the attic or out of the garage and give them a once over. Maybe consider purchasing some new equipment this year. The best way to do that is on one of our away trips. Most places we go have shops dedicated to cross country skiing, with staff very knowledgeable about the sport and the equipment choices. We have very little to choose from on Long Island, basically a couple of entry level packages. Something to think about, one can never have enough skis!

Here is the update on our planned trips for 2020:

January 17-20 - Lake Placid, NY. There is still room on this trip, but you must decide soon. Reserved rooms will be released on December 14th. Contact True Hampton if interested.

January 26-31 - Craftsbury, VT, through Road Scholar. This trip is filled.

February 2-7 - Eagle Mountain House, NH - There are currently 5 people signed up for this trip, rooms will be held until January 15th. Best to decide soon. Contact Lyn Lettieri if interested.

February 23-27 - Highland Center, NH - Rooms are being held until Dec 10th. Unfortunately Fay and Ken Wong will be unable to lead the trip, but everything is set up for it to happen. Contact Fay if you are interested, or for more information.

March 1-6 - Craftsbury, VT, both through Road Scholar (yoga theme) and independent. There are still places available for this trip, contact Kim Schultz for information.

And as always, there is the opportunity for spontaneous day trips and weekend getaways, depending on snow conditions. These can be posted through the Google Group. If anyone needs any suggestions or assistance, there are many of us available to help.

Fingers crossed for lots of snow, and a great ski season!

Since we no longer have family memberships each person in a couple will have to create an individual membership and each will need to do this with their personal information \(not the spouses\). If a couple shares an email address then only one of them will be set up on the Google Group (our club communication forum).

PLEASE NOTE: If one person in a couple chooses to sign up online for themselves and then also SIGNUP their spouse they should SIGNUP their spouse with a separate account and password. If they do not do this then the spouse will be signed up with their email and will not have a separate email in our membership database and will not have their own account on our Google Group.

Please let me know if you have any questions.
